Perry Ellis Completed its Takeover of Rafaella Group!

Perry Ellis International (Miami, FL) has announced that it finally completed its takeover of Rafaella Apparal Group. The takeover was financed by a non-disclosed creditor in the amount of $80,000,000. The move made by George Feldenkreis was based on a desire to expand its line into the female clothing market which tends to be much less fickle during times of economic strife. 2010 predictions for sales in the new line are upwards of $120,000,000.
